You are going to give a talk about WORK.	The text of the monologue	Vocabulary, Grammar Structures, Linking Words and Phrases
Step 1. Introduction 1. Start with a hook sentence that will attract the listener's attention (a quote, a proverb, etc.). 2. Lead your speech steadily to the main part of your talk. 3. The introduction may consist of 3-6 sentences.	Why is it so important to find a work that will bring you joy? People usually grow up, finish school and then go to the university to study their future profession. Then they start to work. And this is one of the main parts of human existence. People need to do some activity because of our brain who always needs to be trained. By working and doing some tasks which makes us think we improve our mind. This is why you need not only to find a job but find an activity that will bring satisfaction. Jobs can be different. As a result, everyone will find something that he will enjoy.
Step 2. Jobs 2.1. Which of the jobs you know would you like to do? Which wouldn't you like to do? Why? 2.2. What are the most important things for you in your future job?	As for me, I am not sure of my future profession, but now I am studying in the university. I will be the programmer. Although, throughout its development as a full-fledged person I thought about being a journalist, a lawyer and a teacher. At first, I had an intention to become a teacher because I really liked the idea of dealing with young people face to face. I imagined that I could teach them and give them a lot of knowledge, but then I realized that I will not have good opportunities for promotion. Due to this reasons, I have changed my mind. I thought about being a lawyer because I wanted to spend time at overseas branches. In addition, my dream was to work for a big prestigious firm. After all, I realized that I would like to work alone and to have prospects. I made a decision to become a programmer. However, I would not like to be a politician because of the responsibility of this people. They make decisions for the whole country. They are responsible for a big amount of human lives. In my opinion, the most important things in future job is getting a competitive salary, having an annual bonus and being a respected employee.
Step 3. Homeworking 3.1. Speak about the reasons for homeworking, the advantages and disadvantages of working from home. 3.2. Would you like to work from home? What would be the advantages/disadvantages for you?	Nowadays working from home is becoming habitual fact. We all should be careful because of the coronavirus and stay at home. On the one hand homeworking has a lot of benefit but on the other hand it also has disadvantages. If a person work from home, there is no need in daily commuting to work. In addition, you can develop time management skills and plan your day according to your preferences. Nevertheless, working not at home can help you in saving work-life balance and keeping good relationships with your family. Personally, I would like to work and study at home because I live pretty far from the center of the city where all places for study and work are located. Also it would be an advantage to plan day by myself due to being preferred by me to work at late night.

Step 4. Work placements 4.1. What are work placements and internships? 4.2. Speak about the benefits young people can get from work placements and internships.	Traditionally internships are learning opportunities while you study. Jobs are something you get after you graduate. People often confuse work placements with internships, but the two types of experience are different. While internships are usually undertaken over the summer months or after graduation to gain experience in a particular field, work placements are taken as part of a degree. Students on a placement year are completing a module and receive academic credit for the year. Young people during the internships can find new friends, get enough training and get into a work sector.
Step 5. CREATIVE THINKING Introduce your own extra idea(s) on work that hasn't/haven't been mentioned before. Justify your choice.	Before getting a job, you should find out who you want to be. In twenty first century there are a lot of ways to do it. For example, you can go to the event or listen a lecture about career guidance. It will not tell you about your future career exactly, but can give you a hint.
Step 6. Conclusion Summarise the ideas of steps 2,3,4,5.	To sum up, job is an important part of our lives that can bring us joy or not. You should strive to make your work as comfortable as possible for you. Work can be from home or not, part-time or full-time, but in the end it is all about your self-realization.
