

Active Vocabulary: 20, Grammar Structures > 4, Linkers: 10. Total: 568 words.

| You are going to give a talk about TRAVEL. | The text of the monologue | Vocabulary, Grammar, Linking Words and Phrases |
|--|--|---|
| Step 1. Introduction 1. Start with a hook sentence that will attract the listener's attention (a quote, a proverb, etc.). 2. Lead your speech steadily to the main part of your talk. 3. The introduction may consist of 3 - 6 sentences. | Do you love to travel? I think most people will say: "Yes, this is very interesting and exciting." Unfortunately, this answer will not always be correct, as not everyone understands the difference between travel and tourism. That is why I offer you to have a look at the meanings of these definitions. | Unfortunately |
| Step 2. Tourism and Travelling 2.1. Speak about the difference between tourism and travel, the reasons for travelling. How important are the different reasons, do you think? 2.2. Speak about travel tips for someone visiting or coming to live/work in your country. What are the most important ones? | To begin with, travellers and tourists have different goals. People usually travel to learn a new language, experience different cultures and become more independent. Another more important reason is travelling on business to earn money. Tourists, on the other hand, go on various tours and cruises to relax. In addition, travellers tend to avoid tourist traps and like to go off the beaten track to discover new places. They also may meet interesting people and learn something new about different cultures. Another difference is pastime while travelling. In comparison with tourists, travellers go on journeys, which can be much longer. By the way, travelling to other countries is a real challenge. Some tips have been prepared for you by me if you are planning to come to Russia. First, you need to read about local laws and customs. Second, if you are going to Siberia, you should obtain comprehensive travel insurance. Third, you cannot carry packages through the customs for others. And most importantly, if you travel by train, you will have to keep an eye on your luggage and carry it yourself. | To begin with, to learn a new language, experience different cultures, become more independent, travelling on business, to earn money, on the other hand, go on various tours and cruises, In addition, to avoid tourist traps, to go off the beaten track, They also may meet interesting, which can be much longer, Some tips have been prepared for you by me if you are planning to come to Russia, First, read about local laws and customs, Second, if you are going, obtain comprehensive travel insurance, Third, carry packages through the customs for others, if you travel by train, you will have to keep an eye on your luggage |

| | | |
|---|---|--|
| Step 3. Explorers 3.1. How is a traveller different from an explorer? 3.2. Speak about a famous explorer, his/her greatest achievement. | As we have identified how the traveller differs from the tourist, now let's find out how one differs from the explorer. For a start, when explorers set out on a journey, they go for the experience, not for pleasure. Additionally, explorers discover new places and keep a diary or any other possible way to describe their journey to find out something new and to introduce the general public with their discoveries. Besides, they go through various hardships to collect information. They may get ill or hurt in a process of exploration, but it is not so important for them. For example, Jacques Cousteau was one of the most famous explorers. He said that for most of history man had had to fight nature to survive, but in that century he was beginning to realize, he had to protect it in order to survive. He was a French undersea explorer, environmentalist and inventor. Jacques Cousteau is known for inventing scuba gear and creating a society that protects ocean life. For the creation of the Society of Cousteau he was made a member of the French Academy. | set out on a journey, go for the experience, Additionally, discover new places, keep a diary, describe their journey, to introduce the general public with, For example, He said that for most of history man had had to fight nature to survive, but in that century he was beginning to realize, he had to protect it in order to survive, was a French undersea explorer, is known, for protects ocean life, was made |
| Step 4. CREATIVE THINKING Introduce your own extra idea(s) on travelling that hasn't/haven't been mentioned before. Justify your choice. | Nevertheless, some people can't travel or don't like the physical reality of travelling. They get easily exhausted or quickly fall ill. So, it is not a good idea for them to travel long distances. But it is not a problem. Nowadays, it's easy to be an 'armchair traveller'. Distant corners of the world or even little-known parts of their own country can be visited by people without leaving their living rooms using various applications. Television and the Internet make the world a small place, and some people argue that travel is no longer necessary. | Distant corners of the world or even little-known parts of their own country can be visited by people |
| Step 5. Conclusion Summarise the ideas of steps 2,3,4,5. | In conclusion, it is believed that travel, tourism and exploration have both advantages and disadvantages. As many men, as many minds. So, it is up to you to decide what to choose. It depends only on what you prefer. However, life without any kind of travel will not be as rich as it could be. | In conclusion, it is believed that |