Step 1. Introduction 1. Start with a hook sentence that will attract the listener's attention (a quote, a proverb, etc.). 2. Lead your speech steadily to the main part of your talk. 3. The introduction may consist of 3-6 sentences.	Did you know that over one billion people speak Chinese as their native language? It is an incredible amount considering the fact that in total, more than seven billion people live on earth. Language is an important way of communication between people. It is a body of words for their use common to people of the same community or nation, the same geographical area, or the same cultural tradition. Additionally, The methodological study of language is called linguistics. The language distinguishes a country or in a region or a community.
Step 2. Learning Languages 2.1. Speak about the reasons for learning foreign languages. 2.2. What sort of people do you think make the best language learners?	Learning foreign languages has become a necessity and trend these days. There are several reasons to start going it. Firstly, on the educational point of view, is great for children because it improves their listening, speaking, writing and reading skills efficiently. Also, they can become bilingual. They will not have an accent because of it. In addition, their grammar, pronunciation and spelling will be great. If they continue studying in adult age, they will master a language. Secondly, we know that communication is very important medium in companies to accomplish tasks properly. For example, if an individual, working in a company is fluent in foreign languages then he will be able to communicate well to the foreigners and will be able to handle and solve problems quite easily. Moreover, they will be able to hold intelligent conversations with native speakers and to develop relationships with people from other countries. Thirdly, every foreign language has its own culture, which is unique in its own. So learning a foreign language allows an individual to learn about its culture, which includes its mythologies, rules, principles, deities, holy shrines and many more things. Language has no existence without culture. In my opinion, the best language learners are people who started doing it in their childhood. They have picked up the basics of a language and then have started learning it every day. After all, they ended up speaking a foreign language fluently.
Step 3. The future of English 3.1. Speak about the benefits of knowing English in contrast with other foreign languages. 3.2. What language do you think may become a global language in future?	English a widely-spoken language. For instance, English is spoken all over the world as a first and second language. One of the reasons you may be learning English is because it's considered a global language. Did you know that English is spoken in around 70 different countries? There's a reason why English is one of the most common second languages. That is because it is one of the most commonly used languages across the internet and is often found in academia. There are so many benefits to learning English. In fact, one of them is that learning English can connect you to the global

	network of English-speakers across the world. As far as I am concerned, Chinese will become a global language in future. It will dominate diplomacy and prominent in international business.
Step 4. Avoiding Online Mistakes 4.1. Speak about the problems a person may have online. 4.2. Give some tips that may help you to avoid mistakes online.	Nowadays people spend the most part of their day online. They use social media, messengers etc. As a result, we may have problems online. As an illustration, someone can steal yours identity and post your personal information. When you are chatting, you can struggle with the abusive language. You cannot change it, but can avoid. To prevent these things from happening there are some advices: to use secure passwords, to use privacy settings and to find the right balance between being formal and informal.
Step 5. CREATIVE THINKING Introduce your own extra idea(s) on the topic that hasn't/haven't been mentioned before. Justify your choice.	Many of us might be guessing how to learn any language effectively. Learning a foreign language can be difficult, but if you follow certain techniques, soon you will be able to learn any language. Although there is no easy way to go about it, with some hard work and practice, you can be fluent in no time. In the process of learning you may pay attention to this tips: learn pronunciation, pay attention to the grammar, memorize 30 words and phrases each day, practice the alphabet and listen.
Step 6. Conclusion Summarise the ideas of steps 2,3,4,5.	To sum up, language is an arbitrary symbol system that is both rule-governed and socially agreed upon. Language is what we utilize to communicate with other people. It is a powerful instrument to build trusting relations across different societies and to enable people to communicate between cultures. Being able to talk at cross purposes is a great opportunity.
